

Press Release for the Reopening of the Ross County Heritage Center Museums and McKell Library

The Ross County Heritage Center (45 West 5th St., Chillicothe) -- including the Museum and Knoles Log House -- will reopen by appointment on Fridays & Saturdays, 1-5 p.m., beginning September 4. To schedule a museum tour, please call 740-772-1936, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and Saturdays. (Walk-ups will only be admitted if the time slot is not already reserved.) The size of tour groups will be limited to four (4) members of a family, the same household, or those traveling in the same vehicle. Hand sanitizing, social distancing, and face masks are required. (Disposable masks will be provided at no charge to those without their own.)

The Ross County Historical Society's McKell Library will reopen by appointment, 1-5 p.m., Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday, beginning September 1. Please call 740-773-1896 during operating hours for an appointment. (Walk-ups will only be admitted if the time slot is not already reserved.) Again, hand sanitizing, social distancing and face masks are required. (Disposable masks will be provided at no charge to those without their own.)
